PreK visit Philadelphia Art Museum

On Wednesday, May 25th our PreK class traveled to the Philadelphia Art Museum. The theme of their lesson was Art in Bloom. The children toured the museum and examined different flower paintings including Van Gough's Sunflowers. Following the tour, the children created their own flower garden using a variety of art materials. The class also enjoyed reading Lois Ehlert's book, "Planting a Rainbow". See more photos below.

Help us reach our goal!

Our Annual Fund is currently at $50,000, and we'd like to reach $70,000 before it closes on July 31!

Please consider making a gift to the Annual Fund this year to help us reach our goal. The Annual Fund provides important funding to the school and touches every child, every day. Through generous donations we can ensure updated curriculum materials, personal attention by teachers in intimate classes, exposure to fine and performing arts with world class instructors, professional development for teachers, access to athletic programs allowing each student an opportunity to play and so much more.

Giving envelopes are available in the Admissions Office. Contact Beth Reaves, breaves@friendsmh.org with any questions.

Fine and Performing Arts Priority Registration Deadline approaching!!

We are now accepting registration for summer lessons. Please call to make an appointment to register. Sign up right away to receive your preferred lesson time! PRIORITY REGISTRATION ends June 1st. Current students can keep their same lesson day and time next school year by sending in a deposit.
