7th Annual Fall Festival Books & More Store

For those new families to FSMH, we accept donation of gently used adult books, children's books, DVD's, CD's, audio books and cookbooks to be sold at the PA Fall Festival Book & More Store! Any books, movies or music for ages 0-101 are accepted. (But please no textbooks, encyclopedias or damaged books!)

Collection boxes will be placed in the school buildings starting the week of September 20th but in the meantime, please start putting these items aside as you finish those beach books and clean out your children's' rooms. Remember that your donation helps our school in a number of ways! FSMH Teachers are also able to come and select age appropriate books for their classrooms, so all the children benefit from this wonderful program!

A note to our younger families: This is a great time to clear out those baby, toddler and preschool books; these are strong sellers at our event. Back by popular demand, we also accept video games, comic books & gaming magazines. (Please no computer or Mature rated games) The older kids love these!

Save the date and remember not only to donate books but visit us to refill your nightstand and bookshelves! We have wonderful books at fabulous prices for all ages!
