Friends School Mullica Hill founded 1969, serves 205 girls and boys on a twenty-seven acre campus in Mullica Hill, NJ. It is the only Quaker school in Gloucester County New Jersey, and is governed by a self-appointing Board of Trustees, a majority of whom are members of the Religious Society of Friends (Quakers). The school prides itself on diversity in belief, ethnicity, and socioeconomic background. The School is a nurturing and caring community that focuses on the development of elementary and middle school students in a setting that meets their needs – academic, artistic, athletic, and spiritual. Graduates of the school attend a variety of private, parochial, and public high schools in the tri-state area.
